

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

"Stolen Honor" is an appropriate title, because that is exactly what Sinclair is doing to our democracy--stealing our honor and integrity and replacing it with propaganda.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
